Says Rights Bill Creates 'Untouchables'

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., argued to the Senate today that the civil rights bill would make the attorney general "an untouchable czar" and give the federal government "more raw, naked and absolute power" than ever held in peacetime.

Stennis, one of the Dixie speaker captains, fired away at the House-passed measure as the Senate began its 33rd day of debate. It was his fourth full-fledged speech against the bill.

The debate proceeded against a background of renewed appeal from President Johnson for prompt passage of the bill, and of admonition from Johnson and some Negro leaders against disorders and violence as demonstrations for the measure.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., in remarks in the Senate said he and other Senate supporters of the bill, as well as responsible Negro leaders, oppose the projected "stall-in" on the highways leading to the New York World's Fair.

Javits said this tactic would be a "sad example" of demonstrations which involve "the unlawful use of force, or which violate other laws." Such demonstrations, he said, "are not protected."

In his speech, Stennis said there has been no occasion since Reconstruction days when Congress has considered a bill "which would seize from individual citizens so many personal and property rights and place their complete control in the federal government."

Bulletin

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Weather Bureau issued a tornado alert today for parts of four states, including extreme north-west Arkansas.

The alert read: "Scattered severe thunderstorms with a tornado or two, large hail and locally damaging winds are expected 60 miles either side of a line from 30 miles west of Oklahoma City to 20 miles south-east of Joplin, Mo., from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. tonight."

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A second white Mississippi jury deadlocked today in the Byron De La Beckwith murder trial and Circuit Judge Leon Hendrick again declared a mistrial.

This marked the end of the state's second effort to convict Beckwith, a dedicated segregationist, of the murder of Negro integration leader Medgar Evers.

The jury said it was hopelessly deadlocked after 10 hours of deliberation. It gave no breakdown of how it stood.

Beckwith's first trial ended Feb. 7 with the jury split 6-6. He was accused of the ambush slaying of Evers, a crime that shocked the nation last summer. Evers had spearheaded mass desegregation demonstrations and boycotts here.

He Caught But Didn't Get Him

CALHOUN, Ga. (AP) — When the wife of Sheriff Hughdon Davis opened the jail's bullpen to admit a drunk Tuesday night, a prisoner ran out.

A second followed saying, "I'll get him for you." He didn't, but he caught up with him.

Both were captured in a field near here Wednesday.

Johnson Warns Disorder Hurts Rights Group

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson deploring violence and disorder in the civil rights struggle, says all groups should exercise moderation and try to understand the other fellow's viewpoint.

Johnson was asked to comment Thursday, at his biggest-ever news conference, on civil rights demonstrations that run against the law or threaten violence.

He replied: "We do not, of course, condone violence or taking the law into your own hands, or threatening the health or safety of our people. You really do the civil rights cause no good when you go to this extent."

The President also expounded on national defense controversies, the rail negotiations, the booming economy and politics.

At one point, he virtually announced his candidacy for a four-year White House term, saying he was enjoying his work and "prepared to continue."

The conference, broadcast live by television and radio networks, marked Johnson's first appearance in the big State Department auditorium where President John F. Kennedy held all his sessions with newsmen.

Wearing television blue, Johnson faced the biggest news conference crowd on record—512 reporters and conventioners members of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. The previous high was 437 for a 1961 Kennedy conference.

Rusk Pledges Continued U.S. Aid to Viet Nam

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk arrived today and declared South Viet Nam will have peace when Red China and Communist North Viet Nam "have been taught to leave their neighbors alone." He pledged continued U.S. aid.

Rusk immediately opened talks with U.S. officials and found the situation so interesting that he will extend his scheduled two-day stay for an extra day.

Robert Manning, assistant secretary of state for public affairs, told reporters Rusk will leave Monday morning instead of noon Sunday as had been originally planned.

Rusk had planned to address two semipublic ceremonies in Washington on Monday morning "but now that he is here and found the situation so interesting he wants to stay awhile and we have managed to have them postponed," Manning said.

Rusk went from the airport to the U.S. Embassy in downtown Saigon to confer with U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and the commander of the American military forces in Vietnam. Continued on Page Five

Weekend Rain Is Predicted

The Weather Bureau says Arkansas is in for a period of scattered showers and thunderstorms through Sunday.

Strong southerly winds began pushing moisture from the Gulf of Mexico into the state early today. Rain is expected to increase as the air becomes more unstable from daytime heating.

Warm weather will accompany the rains, with high readings in the low to mid 80s. Overnight low readings are predicted in the low to mid 60s.

Maximum readings Thursday ranged from 79 at Walnut Ridge to 89 at Fort Smith. Overnight low readings were generally in the upper 50s and low 60s.

One of Every 7 Hempstead Residents Receiving Social Security Check Each Month

About one out of every seven residents of Hempstead County is now receiving a monthly social security check according to figures released by Otis A. Blackwood, Texarkana social security district manager.

Mr. Blackwood's report listed the number of Hempstead County beneficiaries as 2877 at the end of 1963, an increase of 175 over the corresponding figure at the beginning of 1963. The dollar benefit amounts total more than 134 million dollars yearly.

Retired workers are the largest single group of social security beneficiaries in the county. There are 1439 in this group and they receive $84,281 each month in retirement benefits.

In releasing the figures, Mr. Blackwood pointed out that the social security benefits are important to the community as well as to the people who receive them. Almost every dollar of social security benefits coming into the county is spent each month in local businesses for food, clothing, shelter, and other essentials. This has a stabilizing effect on the local economy.

Mr. Blackwood forecast that the number as social security beneficiaries will continue to increase in the future, but at a much slower rate than in the past 10 years. He said that nationally the social security benefit rolls increased from about 5 million people in 1954 to more than 19 million at the end of 1963. The rapid growth in the beneficiary population resulted from major amendments to the Social Security Act from 1950 through 1961.

Bucket seats? On the Scout?
There are probably thousands of farmers, construction men and store owners who like the SCOUT because it's a tough, powerful utility vehicle that's easy on gas and goes anywhere.
But we hear from more and more people who bought a SCOUT for pure fun. Outdoor people... suburbanites... hunters and fishermen who don't want to stop going just because they've run out of road.
The sporty bucket seats (and the full width removable back seat) are for them.
And if you think that's getting too fancy for a utility vehicle, take a SCOUT on a pleasure cruise. You never had that much fun with a utility vehicle.

Court Curbs Asked in Legal Circles

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's editors were told today there is "cause for great concern" in the rising clamor in legal circles for tighter curbs on news reporting of the courts.
The Committee on Freedom of Information of the American Society of Newspaper Editors warned that the proposed restrictions, "although aimed primarily at television," could damage all news coverage.
The committee headed by Creed C. Black, executive editor of the Wilmington (Del.) Morning News and Evening Journal, prepared the report for today's opening session of ASNE's three-day annual convention.
The nearly 500 editors registered for the meeting were invited as guests at President Johnson's late afternoon news conference in the large State Department auditorium.
The freedom of information report attributed the restrictive proposals by legal groups partly to the "raging and turbulent events at Dallas"—the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, the televised murder of Lee Harvey Oswald and the hectic trial that convicted Jack Ruby as Oswald's murderer.
"Of more lasting concern to us is a broader—and relatively new—element in this perennial controversy which deserves no less attention from us than it is getting from the bench and bar," Creed's committee said.
"That is the extent to which television is complicating matters for all media."

The committee noted that the New York County Lawyers' Association has declared that the "special visual impact" of television makes new measures necessary to protect the right of accused persons to a fair trial. The lawyers said they were convinced that "any reliance on voluntary restraints by the television industry are largely doomed to failure."
The emphasis on television "is not to suggest that the newspapers of America are blameless," the editors' report went on.

It said: "Indeed, the necessity to re-examine our own shortcomings and rid our own house of irresponsibility becomes all the more urgent if we are to head off measures which—although aimed primarily at television—could affect us all and invite greater abuses in the administration of justice than those they supposedly are designed to correct."
"If Developing smaller television cameras is beyond our control, we can certainly try, by our own example, to teach the electronic newsmen larger manners and a deeper understanding of the basic truth that freedom of information is not an unlimited license to trample on individual rights."

The increase was to have compensated truckers for in-driver expenses obtained by James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamster's Union.

Wild Gas Well Finally Capped

CALUMET, Okla. (AP) — A wild natural gas well that spewed approximately four million cubic feet of gas in this central Oklahoma area for more than two days was capped Wednesday.

The well blew out Monday and experts estimated it was leaking at a rate of about two million cubic feet every 24 hours. Twenty-six persons living in the rural area were evacuated because of the danger of fire or explosion. They have returned to their homes.

Sale of Farm by U.S. to Be Appealed

DERMOTT, Ark. (AP)—Dermott rice farmer James Weir filed notice in Federal District Court at St. Louis Wednesday that he intends to appeal an order upholding the sale of his 994-acre Chicot County farm.
Weir's farm was sold April 17, 1962 to satisfy federal liens for overplanting of crop allotments. The sale order was upheld by federal Judge J. Smith Henley after Weir contended it was improperly conducted.
Weir remains on the farm though its purchasers have asked for a court order ejecting him from the property.

Highway Crosses Chesapeake Bay

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP) —The last major water barrier of the north-south Ocean Hiway from New York to Jacksonville, Fla., has been spanned by the opening of the 17.6-mile Chesapeake Bay bridge-tunnel.

Traffic began moving across the bridge shortly before sunset Wednesday. Not long after that, ferries made their final runs across the bay.

A $200-million revenue toll-bond issue financed the project — 12 miles of concrete trestle 30 feet above Chesapeake Bay, where it meets the Atlantic Ocean, two steel bridges, four mile-long tunnels that dip beneath major ship channels, four artificial islands that anchor the tunnels, and 1½ miles of earth-fill causeway.

HUSBANDS CAN BE FAITHLESS WITHOUT AN "OTHER WOMAN"
By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: My husband often makes fun of me before company, and is disloyal in other ways.

I know of some husbands who are wonderful to their wives, then turn around and have an affair with another woman. My husband is the opposite type. He doesn't look at another woman, but he has a way of making my life miserable.

He criticizes me in front of our children and makes fun of me before company. But this seems to me just as unfaithful as having an affair. Do you agree? —Mrs. F. W. S.

Dear F. W. S.: Yes, indeed I do. A well-known marriage counselor, the Rev. Margaret Johnston, made just this comment some time ago. In her experience, she said, not more than one in 20 marriage problems comes from adultery. Well over half the cases, she pointed out, involve other forms of unfaithfulness.

One of the most common infidelities is this: a woman marries a man, and promises to honor him, for richer or for poorer. Then, a few months later, she begins nagging him about his earning power, and wonders why he doesn't get promoted like other men do. This type of woman is clearly being unfaithful to her vows.

Another type of infidelity is outright treachery, the betrayal and humiliation of a loved one in front of others. At a party I overheard a husband speaking about his wife. "You want Sally to run for president of the club?" he asked. "That's a laugh. Why, she hasn't the business sense of a rabbit."

Another time I heard a wife say to her daughter in the presence of her husband "Why should I take part in the community fashion show? On your father's salary, I couldn't afford a new hanky."

Many husbands are guilty of misplaced fidelity through over-devotion to their jobs, or to golf, or to some hobby, or to a pastime.

As Dr. Johnson said, you don't have to have an affair to adulterate the emotional relationship between you and your mate. You can displace your fidelity just as thoroughly in so many other ways. Sometimes, it's worthwhile to examine your own relationship at home, and ask yourself this: am I committing any of these tracheries to the person I married? If you do, it's probable that your friends notice. And not only that, your children do, too.

A woman I know was approached by her daughter, who asked her, "Mother, what does 'married' mean?" "Why, it means mothers and fathers promise to love and honor each other all the rest of their lives," the woman replied. "Then you and Daddy aren't always married, are you?" the little girl countered.

Women Who Never Have A Thing To Wear

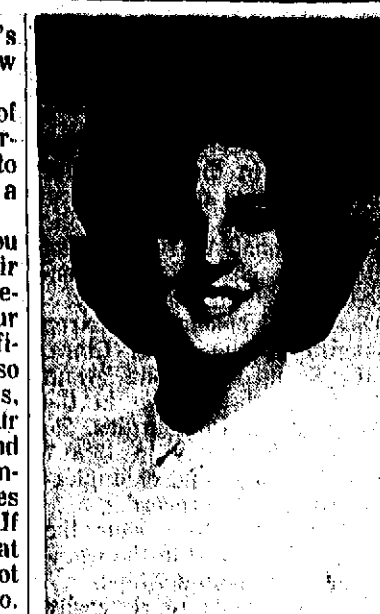

There are women who never have a thing to wear. They emerge from the shower, ready to dress for the morning, and find nothing they own is right. Either the color is wrong or it's too old, or they just plain don't like it.

If there's no time to go shopping, they will try one dress on after another, hating them all.

If this happens to a woman repeatedly, it probably means it's not the dress she hates but herself. The dress is psychologically the symbol of her body. Her wanting to change her dress means a desire to change her body. It is not the color or length that dissatisfies her, but her height, weight, and figure. An obsessive wish to change dress, may indicate a longing to change her sex. Especially, if as a last resort she always turns to slacks.

If men want to keep down their spending on the female wardrobe, the best way to go about it is to keep up the woman's morale. If you make her feel attractive, lovable and glamorous in the old blue, she's less likely to go out and buy a new green.

Vegetables Plentiful This Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If you have a spring yen for salad, this may be the week to satisfy it. Fresh vegetables are in plentiful supply at produce counters in the nation's super-markets.

Menu-brighteners like radishes, cucumbers, greens, lettuce, green onions, carrots, celery, broccoli, cabbage and tomatoes carry attractive prices as the seasonal supply continues to grow.

Red meats lead the main course department, with beef roasts and steaks featured at many meat counters. One national chain offers rib roast at 63 cents a pound and boneless chuck at 59 cents a pound at its New York City area outlets. Top and bottom round roasts are listed in the same markets for 85 cents a pound.

Pork cuts also are featured. One Northeastern chain has pork chops at 89 cents a pound, down 6 cents from last week, and is listing specials on ham.

Egg prices continue to reflect the calendar, especially those for large sizes. Heavy spring laying makes this a traditional bargain time for eggs. One chain lists its grade A large eggs at 49 cents a dozen, up slightly from last week.

Poultry remains an attractive buy, particularly in Midwestern and Southwestern stores.

Melons and avocados are being featured in the Northeast; apples and oranges in the Midwest and Southwest. In the Southeast, fresh strawberry supplies are still generous.

Buick has a great transmission.

An automobile transmission, we grant you, isn't the most soul-stirring subject on earth. Nothing to look at either. But if you'd like for your next new car to give you a better break on performance and gasoline mileage, something happened last week to be your guide.

The Los Angeles to New York Mobil Economy Run proved one thing for sure. There's quite a difference in the transmissions of new cars.

Three out of four for Buick
The long-time champion in the transmission league—Buick—walked off with the 1964 economy pennant. No other single make of car won as many events as Buick. Four entries, three winners.

The winning Special carried the new Super Turbine 300 automatic transmission; the LeSabre was equipped with the Super Turbine 400 (both optional at extra cost). They're the latest in a long line of Buick transmissions well known for their smoothness and absence of "shift feel." The Super Turbine is a refined and improved torque converter type to help you safely pass cars and trucks as well as gas stations. You'll hear a lot about it in the next couple of years as this modern kind of transmission is adopted by more and more car builders.

What about engines?
Of course, an efficient transmission gets more efficient when teamed up with a lean, agile engine. The winning Buick power plants were our new V-6 and V-8. The 300 cubic inch V-8 in the winning '64 Buick Special (the lowest priced of all Buicks) and the Buick LeSabre (the lowest priced big Buick) is like a well-conditioned fighter. All muscle, no fat. Weighs in at far less than other V-8's of similar punch. It took every other V-8 in the Economy Run.

Your type of driving—regular gas
The Run was through cities and towns, across super highways, in traffic, out of traffic. This was not race track driving or proving ground driving. This was your kind of driving—even though you can't expect to get as good mileage as these expert drivers in their finely tuned production cars. The distance was 3,243 miles, about what most families log in four months. All three Buicks used regular gas. So the Economy Run is not just a cross country tour for the Mobil people and a few car buffs. It's a reliable test of a car's power team and what it's able to squeeze out of its fuel.

We don't expect everybody to rush out this week-end to buy a new Buick just because we won a few economy trophies. There are so many other good reasons for leaning to Buick that economy usually gets second billing. There's styling, naturally. An unusually great ride. Extraordinary engineering and workmanship. And very young performance. Small wonder Buick sales are running at 11.5% over last year.

But it's nice to get economy as a plus in a Buick. Beyond the dollars saved on gasoline, there's a certain pride in knowing you have a car that's built to get the most out of every tank of gasoline.

Wouldn't You Really Rather Have a Buick?

Yankees Lose to Boston, Twins in Win

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tony Oliva, who reached the United States on his brother's name, appears ready to go far in the American League on his own.

The rookie outfielder, so highly thought of that he forced defensive star Vic Power off first base, is setting the early batting pace for Minnesota with five hits in 10 times at bat in two games.

He clouted a single, a double and a triple and knocked in two runs Thursday night as the Twins whipped Washington 6-2 for their second victory in two games.

The 22-year-old Oliva's real first name is Pedro but he has been known as Tony ever since he used his brother's passport to get into the United States from Cuba. Pedro or Tony, Oliva is a potent addition to the Twins' already powerful line-up.

With Oliva on the scene, though, the Twins were faced with a dilemma. They already had Harmon Killebrew, Bob Allison and Jimmie Hall in the outfield. The answer, then, was to move Allison to first, relegating the popular Power to a utility role.

Besides Oliva, Bob Tillman and John Orsino starred at bat in the American League Thursday. Tillman pounded out four hits, sparking Boston to an 11-inning 4-3 victory over the New York Yankees, while Orsino slugged a two-run homer that carried Baltimore past Chicago 4-3.

In the National League, Curt Simmons pitched St. Louis to a 2-0 triumph over San Francisco, Milwaukee ripped Houston 6-5 and Cincinnati whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-2.

Oliva got the Twins off to a 1-0 lead in the first inning, doubling home Rich Rollins, who also doubled. The Twins broke the game open with three runs in the sixth on Zoilo Versalles' twisting pop fly triple with the bases loaded.

Don Lock homered in the second and Ken Hunt hit one in the ninth for the Senators' scoring.

Tillman, a catching disappointment for the Red Sox last year, socked three singles against the Yankees before he tripled in the 11th. Whitey Ford, who pitched the whole game, then uncorked a wild pitch, allowing Tillman to score the winning run.

Orsino's home run, his second of the young season, climaxed a four-run fifth inning for the

More Records In Swim Meet

PITTSBURGH (AP) — One record was in the books after only two events and there was promise of more to come as the senior National AAU swimming and diving championships entered their second day today.

The record belongs to Sharon Pinneran of the Santa Clara, Calif., Swim Club. She swam the 1,650-yard freestyle in the University of Pittsburgh's 25-yard pool Thursday in 18:31.7 for an American and championship short-course record.

This was the first year the event has been held in the women's indoor championships.

Miss Pinneran's mark easily eclipsed the best previous applied for time of 18:42.3 set by her last Feb. 28.

In the only other event Thursday night Mrs. Barbara McAlister Talmage of the Dick Smith Swim Gym in Phoenix, Ariz., won the one-meter diving title, defeating defending champion Patsy Willard, a member of the same team.

The new titlist, trailing Miss Willard by a narrow margin going into the final round, put on a brilliant display to garner 409.65 points. Miss Willard had 397.55.

2nd Round of Baseball Openers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The first game in the major leagues' newest park and a game dedicated to the late President John F. Kennedy were features of the second round of openers today.

The New York Mets, unsurprisingly winless after two games, entertained Pittsburgh at Shea Stadium, a $25-million structure dedicated Thursday. Boston was host to the Chicago White Sox in the Kennedy memorial game.

Two other teams, one in each league, played before their home fans for the first time this season. The Cubs were at Chicago against Philadelphia while the New York Yankees played at Baltimore.

Some 48,000 were expected to help the Mets baptize the 55,300-seat stadium named for William A. Shea, chairman of the Mayor's Baseball Committee. Shea helped return National League baseball to New York.

All proceeds of the game at Boston will be turned over to the J.F.K. Memorial Library Fund. The Red Sox expected about $25,000.

The late President's brothers, Atty. Gen. Robert and Sen. Ted, were among the crowd along with Gov. Endicott Peabody of Massachusetts, President Joe Cronin of the American League and Stan Musial.

At Chicago, Phillip R. Clarke, a box holder for 40 years, was given the honor of throwing out the first ball.

Baltimore fans saw the first home appearance of Hank Bauer the Orioles' new manager who is an ex-Yankee.

Kansas City, Minnesota and Los Angeles won't open their home seasons until next Tuesday. Milwaukee and St. Louis start at home next Wednesday. The Colts opened at Houston Thursday night.

Hill Rise Is Kentucky Derby Choice

By KELSO STURGEON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Hill Rise, the Kentucky Derby favorite, had better be good at running against the clock if his handlers expect him to gain anything in his Kentucky debut.

Hill Rise, winner of six straight races on the West Coast, met three other 3-year-olds today in the $10,000 Fore-runner at Keeneland, and anything but a victory for him would make this the biggest upset in racing history.

The three other horses were so outclassed that Keeneland officials announced the race would be run as a betless exhibition for the second straight year and the third time in its 15-year history.

Those opposing Hill Rise — Cyclobond, In Accord and Sam Lord—have shown little when running in their own class this year and were expected to show less today.

Because of the presence of an outstanding horse for the past two seasons, Keeneland has had an impossible task of getting owners to send their horses in the Fore-runner — a seven-furlong prep which seven of the last 15 Derby winners have used as a sharpener.

Last year Never Bend scared off all the competition, with only five horses going to the post, and this year no one wanted to tangle with Hill Rise.

Hill Rise, who was to be ridden for the first time today by Willie Shoemaker, who will be aboard in the Derby, was to pack top weight of 122 pounds. Cyclobond got in with 105. In Accord with 113 and Sam Lord with 110.

Giardello Fights Rivero Tonight

CLEVELAND (AP)—Joey Giardello, who hasn't fought since winning a decision over Dick Tiger for the middleweight championship last Dec. 7, has put a premium on strength for his 10-round non-title fight against Juan (Rocky) Rivero here tonight.

Giardello, 33, expected to weigh in today at 154 pounds, one pound under the limit in the overweight match. Rivero, the Argentine middleweight champ, is expected to weigh about the same for the fight to be televised by ABC starting at 10 p.m. EST.

"Joey weighed 150½ against Tiger," said Giardello's trainer, ing weight is around 159 or 160. Adolph Ritacco. "His best fight but he'll be stronger at 164. This rivero is a pretty strong guy."

The 26-year-old South American has knocked out 36 opponents en route to a 41-10 record. Rivero was stopped in the seventh round by Florentino Fernandez in New York last Dec. 13.

Giardello, with a 10122 mark, relies mainly on speed, a good left hook and jab.

1964-65 squad. He doesn't expect the Irish to slug their way to victory next season. He thinks boxing lessons will improve players' footwork, balance and hand quickness.

Porkers Hitting Hard in Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas' No. 1 football team rattled over several touchdowns in a scrimmage session here Thursday.

Quarterback Fred Marshall and wingback Jim Lindsey teamed up on one spectacular 50-yard pass play for a touchdown.

The first team backfield includes Jack Brasuell at tailback and Bobby Nix at fullback. Coach Jim Mackenzie said "hitting from the word go" was responsible for about a dozen minor injuries to players.

Final Preps for Kentucky Derby Meet

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The final major Eastern and Western preps for the 90th running of the Kentucky Derby two weeks hence headline Saturday's horse racing card with the $75,000-added Wood Memorial scheduled for Aqueduct in New York and the $50,000-added California Derby for Golden Gate Fields in California.

Each will be run at 1¼ miles, one eighth of a mile shorter than the Derby at Churchill Downs May 2.

Eight and possibly 10 3-year-olds are expected to contest the 40th running of the Wood, from which 13 winners have gone on to become Derby favorites with six of them capturing the turf classic.

The 49th California Derby drew a field of 10 topped by four Kentucky Derby eligibles — Nearco Blue, Wil Rad, Count Charles and Real Good Deal.

The Wood, however, is not likely to produce a Derby favorite this time since the two outstanding choices—Hill Rise and Northern Dancer—already are in Kentucky with Hill Rise scheduled for a seven-furlong warm-up today in the $10,000 Fore-runner Purse at Keeneland.

Reginald N. Webster's rangy stretch runner, Traffic, is the probable Wood choice. He narrowly missed winning the one mile of the Gotham two weeks ago, being nipped by Mr. Moonlight in the final stride.

Mr. Moonlight already has departed for Kentucky where he is expected to have his final prep in the Derby Trial April 28. Traffic's opposition is due to be provided by Mr. Brick, Quadrangle, Roman Brother, Chieftain, Knightly Manner, Whit's Pride and Twice As Gay. Ouzo and Timbeau also are possibilities. Only Twice As Gay is not eligible for the Derby.

After riding Hill Rise against three lightly regarded rivals in the Fore-runner, Willie Shoemaker departs for California where he'll handle the reins of Wil Rad in the California Derby. It'll take a top performance by any of the Kentucky Derby eligibles in the Golden Gate feature to earn a trip to Louisville since they all showed earlier in the season they were unable to handle Hill Rise.

Pinson Leads Win Over the World Champs

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's fleet-footed Vada Pinson, who wound up in court last year for failing to speed, may have solved his problem. Criticized last year for not capitalizing on his speed by hunting for base hits, Pinson has stepped off to an unusually quick April start without laying one down. Instead, he's been laying them up the middle for base hits.

Pinson lashed three singles Thursday night and along with rookie Chico Ruiz, who collected a single, double and triple, provided enough firepower for the Reds to hand the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers their second loss in three games, 5-2.

Pinson, who has been a National League batting title contender since he became a Cincinnati regular in 1959, has amassed 895 hits over that stretch—more than Stan Musial, 975; Willie Mays, 954; and Hank Aaron, 914, in their first five years.

Yet he always has been beset by the hunt-more-often critics. He was so incensed by one writer last season that the two tangled in the Reds' dressing room and ultimately finished up in a no-decision court battle with the matter dropped.

Whether to hunt or not still is up to Pinson but he may be able to solve some of his problems with a solid start. He's 4-for-8 now, quite an improvement over last season when he managed only 10 hits in 60 April at-bats and still finished with a .313 average.

While Pinson was collecting three hits, St. Louis' Curt Simmons allowed only three to the hard-hitting San Francisco Giants, starting off his 17th season with a 2-0 shutout. In the only other game scheduled, Milwaukee edged Houston 6-5 with Hank Aaron and Felipe Alou playing key roles.

In American League action, Boston nipped the New York Yankees and spoiled Yogi Berra's managerial debut 4-3 in 11 innings. Baltimore defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-3 and Minnesota belted Washington 6-2.

The Reds' Ruiz-Pinson combine was too much for the Dodgers. Ruiz doubled in the first and scored on a single by Pinson then tripled in the fifth and rode home on another single by Pinson. In the fifth Ruiz and Pinson both singled with Deron Johnson's sacrifice fly accounting for the run batted in.

That was more than enough for Jim O'Toole and Joe Nuxhall, who checked the Dodgers on eight hits. O'Toole retired the first 14 batters he faced, finally needed Nuxhall's relief help in the ninth. The loser was Bob Miller.

Roseburg Is Leader at Houston

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON (AP) — Bob Roseburg said two years ago he never would play in Houston again but he started the second round of the $50,000 Houston Golf Classic today with a one-stroke lead.

After posting a four-under-par 67 first round Roseburg, with a sheepish grin, said he was a bit mad at Houston two years ago when the crowd applauded after he missed a short putt and then booed as he walked off the 18th green.

"It had gotten into the newspapers that I had criticized the condition of the Memorial Park course," Roseburg said. "When they booed me off that green I swore I'd never return."

Roseburg did not play here last year and the Classic moved this year from Memorial's municipal layout to the 7,233-yard, par 35-36-71 Sharpstown Country Club course.

Roseburg avoided comparing the two courses while talking about the 33-34-67 that left him one stroke ahead of Ramon Sota, a young newcomer from Spain, and two veterans of the PGA tour, Billy Maxwell and Jimmy Clark.

"I decided to return to Houston because a pinched nerve has kept me out of too many tournaments this year," said the 1959 PGA champion. He is seeking his first tournament championship since the 1961 Bing Crosby National.

"The nerve is in the neck but it causes intense pain in my right arm. I'm having it treated here and just hope things go

LIMA, Peru (AP) — The United States' Women's basketball team opens its bid for the world basketball championship Sunday against France.

The U.S. team will play in the qualifying round at Chiclayo, about 470 miles north of Lima. Following the game with France, the women will play Paraguay next Monday and Bulgaria next Tuesday.

The two best teams in each qualifying round plus host Peru will advance to the finals at Lima April 23-May 3.

Roseburg, 37, also sprained his right ankle last Monday when he stepped in a hole while making his initial inspection of the Sharpstown course.

"The ankle hurts but it doesn't hurt my game," he said.

Sota, who won Spain's PGA championship at the age of 18, finished early and saw his 34-34-68 hold the lead until Maxwell, playing in the fifth from the last threesome, matched the Spaniard by sinking a seven-foot birdie putt on the final green.

Jack Nicklaus, a 3-1 favorite, took a 76 while playing the first 18 without benefit of a practice round.

Grouped at 69 were Lionel Hebert, Rex Baxter Jr., Doug Ford, Ken Venturi, and Don Cherry.

Bob Charles, defending champion from New Zealand, had a 71.

Johnson Warns

flossing out occasional quips, Johnson volunteered eight announcements and fielded 16 questions with apparent ease during the 31-minute conference.

Asked to give his attitude on civil disobedience as a tactic in the civil rights struggle, Johnson said, "We do not think the violation of one right or the denial of one right, should permit the violation of another right."

The President said he would "counsel moderation to all groups, and understanding of their fellow men and trying to appreciate his position."

He said that as long as racial discrimination exists, "We are going to have protests and we are entitled to protest and petition under our constitutional rights."

But he expressed the view that Senate action "with reasonable dispatch" on the civil rights bill would "bring those protests and bring those petitions and bring those disturbances from the streets and the alleys into the courts where they belong."

In the political sphere, Johnson said he expects the presidential campaign to be "a hard fight, a difficult one." And he drew laughter by adding, "I would hope that it wouldn't be too close."

Reminded that a poll of editors indicated broad expectation of a Johnson victory at the polls, the President commented, "I hope that they feel in November as they do in April."

Saigon, Gen. Paul D. Harkins. On Saturday, Rusk will confer with Saigon's premier, Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, and will visit the Communist-threatened countryside.

Rusk emphasized to senior Americans that President Johnson has an "extremely personal interest" in Vietnamese situation, Manning said.

Rusk carried no special message to Lodge or Harkins "but he passed on some of President Johnson's personal views on matters here," Manning added.

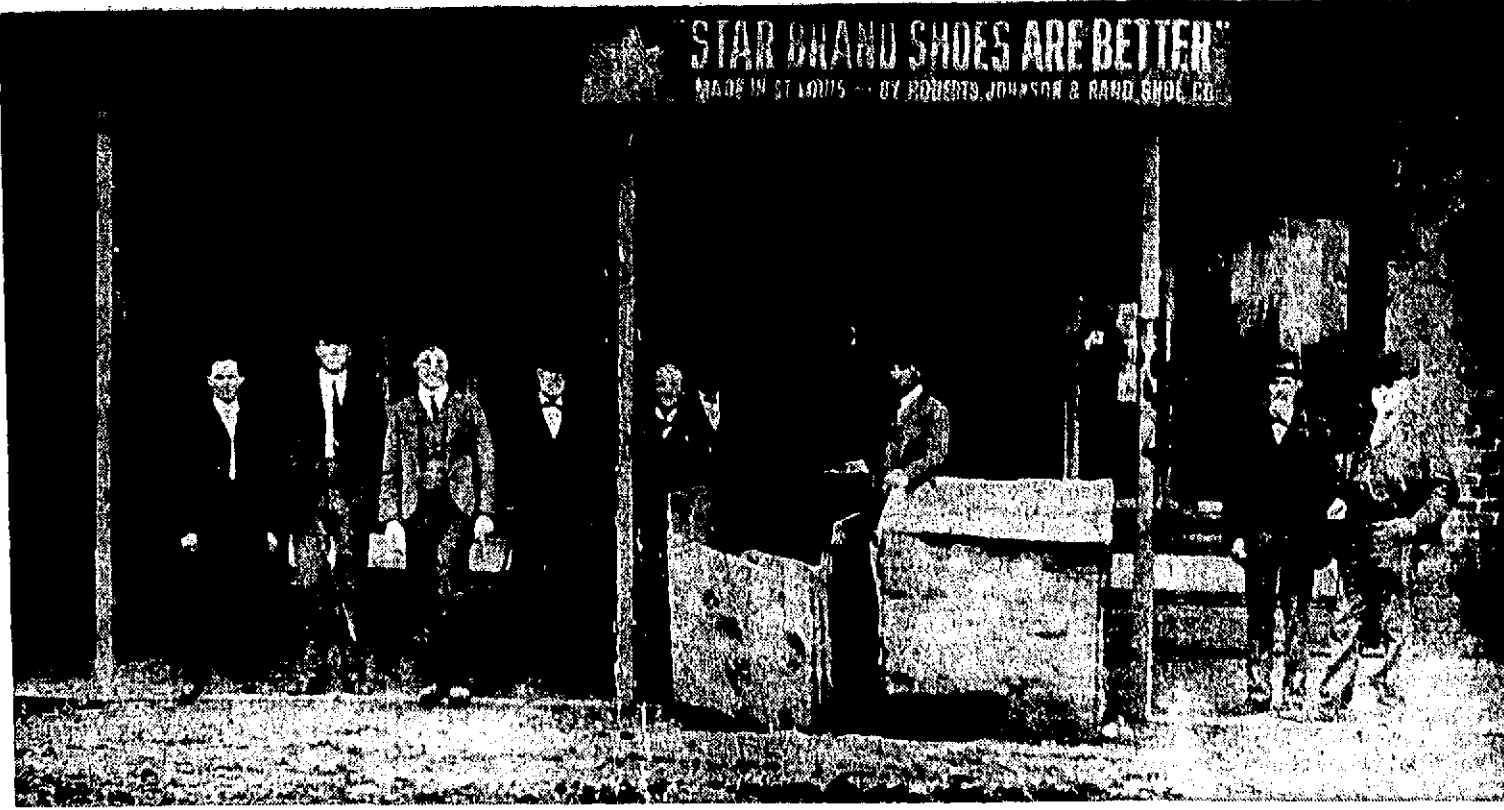

He also discussed the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization meeting he attended in Manila. Lodge and Harkins gave Rusk a two-hour briefing at the embassy. This was followed by discussions with key American personnel, including U.S. aid and information officials.

Rusk will begin a round of official calls Saturday by meeting Foreign Minister Phan Huy Quat. Later he will meet Khanh and then drive with him to 5th Division headquarters at near-by Bien Hoa.

Rusk's party enplanes there for a trip into the countryside. The destination has not been announced for security reasons. He is expected to return to Saigon late Saturday afternoon and dine with Khanh at a state dinner Saturday night.

Sunday, Rusk will continue his discussions in Saigon and will depart tentatively at 9 a.m.

Three Officers

The FBI said Sheriff Quill Sammon of Gwinnett County reported that the three officers had been shot in the back of their heads.

FBI agents were sent to aid county authorities and to determine if any federal law had been violated.

The slain officers were reported found about 15 miles north of Atlanta.

Clinton Chafin, superintendent of the Atlanta detective force, said he understood the officers may have been investigating a report of a stolen automobile which had been set on fire in the area.

THE PICTURE ABOVE WAS PUBLISHED BY THE Star Wednesday, April 15, as being the Haynes store of around 1900, on South Elm St. — but the newspaper stands corrected by Miss Eva Owens, 80, of Fifth and South Hervey Sts.

MISS OWENS FURTHER REPORTS THAT Mr. Cotton married Mr. Hanegan's daughter, Miss Carrie.

THE STAR IS GLAD TO GET CORRECT DATA ON its old-time pictures, and corrections like this will be added to our picture file for future use.

A Choice of Assassins

THE STORY: Tony Malcolm, an alcoholic derelict, is the concern of many people in the village of Cartama, Spain. He has no money and he is without friends.

The police constable of Cartama was a middle-aged man named Don Fernando Gonzalez, and he wore a gray twill uniform with red collar tabs, and a holstered automatic on his black belt.

As a boy he had dreamed of two things: to become police chief of the village he had been born in, and to earn enough money to enjoy the classic Spanish Sunday of a late Mass, a leisurely lunch and white wine, and then the bullfights in Malaga with enough pesetas left over to provide sherry and cigars for the night's discussion. His father had been a gardener at the villa of a wealthy family from Madrid who spent their summers on the coast near Cartama. Their support and interest had encouraged Fernando to complete his elementary schooling, and this made him eligible for the Civil Service. He had chosen the department of police, and inevitably—or so it seemed to him now—he had become the constable of Cartama.

The other dream, however, still eluded him, and he was thinking of this rather gloomily as he rode along the sunny coastal road on the bus to Malaga. He could afford the lunch and white wine on Sundays, but bullfight tickets been driven out of his reach by the tourists.

In Malaga Don Fernando walked along the wide, palm-shaded boulevard which flanked the city's harbor until he came to the low office building where the Great Seal of the United States gleamed in the sun, and an American flag fluttered in the stiff, warm breezes off the sea. Brushing a speck of dust from the shoulder of his tunic, Don Fernando entered the cool lobby.

Five minutes later he was explaining his mission to an American named Peter Kelly, who was his country's representative in Malaga. Kelly was in his early thirties, but in spite of his youth, his untidy red hair and tall, gangling frame, there was a quietness in his manner, a certain dignity and formality, which pleased and soothed Don Fernando.

"He has done nothing wrong, but he is always drunk, and he is a bad example to the village. This morning he was found unconscious in an alley in the Arroyo de Miel. Naturally, we put him in jail. He has no money."

"I imagine he has friends," Kelly said. "But I'm not sure they'd be able to help him. Tell me, Don Fernando, do you know anything about Tony Malcolm?"

"Nothing at all."

"He and his wife were well-known photographers and writers. They worked for the important magazines. Malcolm took the pictures, and his wife did the text. They were talented people, and their approach was always odd and unusual. I remember a piece they did on the expatriate American colony in Paris a few years ago."

Don Fernando nodded politely. "Most original."

"I've pieced together some of Malcolm's background," Kelly said. "When I learned he was stopping here, I made it my business. Early this year Malcolm was scheduled to fly to Dakar to cover a story for a British magazine. He and his wife were in Barcelona at the time and apparently Malcolm came down with pneumonia. He couldn't make the trip. His wife put him in a hospital, made sure he was being well taken care of, and then took his tickets and caught the plane to Dakar." Kelly sighed faintly. "You may remember. The pilot asked for a routine fix an hour out of Dakar. That was the last word from him. The plane went down in the sea, and there were no survivors."

"He believes he killed her, of course."

"He's been on a collision course with oblivion ever since it happened."

Don Fernando stared out the windows at the harbor. He could see gulls wheeling against the sky, freighters lined up like squat sucking animals at the sides of the dock. Lowering his gaze he studied the tall statue of General Marques de Larios, which gives the main avenue of Malaga its name.

"I will need a letter from you to support the fact that I have brought the matter to your attention. Only for my files. That is important. Sometimes what is written down in the files is more important than what eventually happens. Beyond that I can think of nothing more to do just now."

Malcolm was released from jail that afternoon.

He said the expansion to 1,000 watts next Monday will be observed by a 10-minute program beginning at 11:50 a.m.

Appearing on the program besides the general manager will be Mayor Frank Douglas and George T. Frazier, Mr. Frazier, now in the firm of Roy Anderson Insurance Agency, Inc., was the first voice heard over KXAR when it went on the air December 12, 1947. He later became program director of the station.

Mr. Jones said the increase in power should greatly improve KXAR's listening signal over the 50 to 60-mile radius that the station covers at 250 watts, enabling it to overcome static interference in bad weather, in the primary field; and improving reception in the far-out "fringe area."

On 250 watts KXAR does not get into Bradley, Ark., with an acceptable signal, and the new fourfold power should cover Bradley well, Mr. Jones said.

Cold Air Fans in From Canada

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cold air from Canada, fanned by brisk northerly winds, spread into sections of the northern Plains today, ending a brief spell of unseasonable warm weather in some areas.

Light snow fell in parts of Montana and northern Wyoming and light rain splashed areas in North Dakota. Rain also damped areas in Texas, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania and Washington. Mostly dry weather was reported in other parts of the nation.

The coldest weather, with temperatures in the teens, was reported in southwest Montana. Readings dropped to the 30s in parts of the Dakotas after hitting record high marks for April 16 in some cities Thursday. The mercury climbed to 92 in Sioux Falls and Huron, S.D., and 81 in Fargo, N.D.

Many other cities in the Midwest Thursday reported record high temperatures for April 16, including 94 in Grand Island, Neb., and 87 in La Crosse, Wis., and Waterloo, Iowa. Chicago's 84 tied the record high for the date.
